ANNOUNCING:
CUSTOMIZED COURSE PACKS YOU CAN BUILD
FOR YOUR STUDENTS

Starting in January, you can select new information and course materials from the most recent textbook editions for your students and create an updated customized packet of information that is more affordable for students than purchasing traditional textbooks.

What you need do:
- Select content from textbooks, periodicals, newspapers, journals or other materials for your courses
- Develop your lesson plans based on specific chapters or sections of the text and materials
- Place an order for a course packet on your textbook requisition form, providing the title, author, ISBN number and any other customization you would like to include

What we do next:
- Obtain and purchase copyright approval for your course materials
- Copy and bindery service
  - Color or Black & White printing
  - GBC or Spiral Binding with Clear Plastic or Leatherette Cover
- Provide your customized course packets to the bookstore to sell to your students
