TRIP 1: RESUMANIA
WHEN/WHERE: Wednesday, February 2, from 10:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m. in Career Services
WHAT: Employers from Clear Channel, ViaMedia, and Northwestern Mutual will be available to help you with your resumes and cover letters and to provide insider tips about what employers are looking for in undergraduate students’ job search correspondences.
HOW: Signup is required. Stop by Career Services (Dooling Hall, room 121) or call ext. 1738 to schedule a time slot. Signup runs from Wednesday, January 26 to Tuesday, February 1.
WHO: All students from all majors are invited to take advantage of this awesome opportunity. Light snacks will be available.

TRIP 2: ALUMNI NETWORK PANEL
WHEN/WHERE: Wednesday, February 9, from 6:00 – 8:00 p.m. in the DUC
WHAT: A panel of alumni will share insights and ideas with current DSU students on networking and other job hunting ideas and strategies. You’ll have an opportunity to network with alumni who have degrees in theatre, management, accounting, English, communications, finance, biology, chemistry, sports management, theatre, criminal justice, and more.

TRIP 3: CAREER FAIR PREPARATION
WHEN/WHERE: Thursday, February 10, from 6:00 – 7:00 p.m. in the Hurd Room
WHAT: Don’t let Career Fair jitters keep you from attending! This workshop, presented by the director of career services, will provide tips and tools to successfully prepare for and attend a Career Fair.

TRIP 4: LVCCCE CAREER FAIR
WHEN/WHERE: Wednesday, February 16, from 12:00 – 4:30 p.m. at the Holiday Inn in Fogelsville, Pa.
WHAT: Any current student or recent graduate seeking full- or part-time employment, volunteer, internship, or summer opportunities. (This is not a graduate school fair.) Professional dress is required.
HOW: Every candidate must provide a resume for entrance to the expo. Visit www.LVCCCE.org for updated lists of employers.

TRIP 5: ETIQUETTE DINNER
WHEN/WHERE: Wednesday, March 23, at 5:30 p.m. in the Commonwealth Room (DUC)
WHAT: Meet, Greet, and Eat: a networking and fine dining experience. This is an opportunity to share a four course meal with your peers and potential employers while working towards mastering the art of interviewing over a meal.
HOW: Registration is required. Minimal cost and dates of signup are TBA.
CURRENT SPONSORS: ADP and Northwestern Mutual

TRIP 6: MAPPING OUT YOUR INTERNSHIP AND JOB SEARCH
WHEN/WHERE: Wednesday, April 6, from 6:00 – 7:00 p.m., location TBA
WHAT: This workshop, presented by the director of career services, will help you plan out a well-organized internship and job search. You will also learn about various resources available to assist you in networking and landing internships and jobs.

TRIP 7: PREPARING FOR GRADUATE SCHOOL
Presented by Kerri Quick from Kaplan Test Prep
WHEN/WHERE: Thursday, April 7, from 6:00 – 7:00 p.m. in McShea Danko Conference Room
WHAT: Whether you are thinking about or know for sure that you want to attend graduate school, this presentation will answer questions about the process and upcoming changes to the new GRE.

TRIP 8: WRITING AN EFFECTIVE PERSONAL STATEMENT FOR GRADUATE SCHOOL
Presented by Kerri Quick from Kaplan Test Prep
WHEN/WHERE: Monday, April 18, from 6:00 – 7:00 p.m. in the HURD Room (DUC)
WHAT: Personal statements are critical in applying to graduate school. Don’t let writers block stop you. This presentation will provide key points you will need to address to help your statement stand out!