"Understanding Investment Risk"
Wednesday, Oct. 16th
with Guest Speaker: Marie Maritch,
Financial Advisor at Morgan Stanley

Any investment plan requires clear goals, careful planning and diligence. A big part of the planning involves knowing about the risk involved. Your plan needs to be aligned not only with your goals but also with your tolerance for risk. This educational and interactive presentation provides you with an understanding of the various types of investment risk, how they apply to different asset classes, and strategies for minimizing risk in your portfolio, IRA, and employer-sponsored 401(k).
